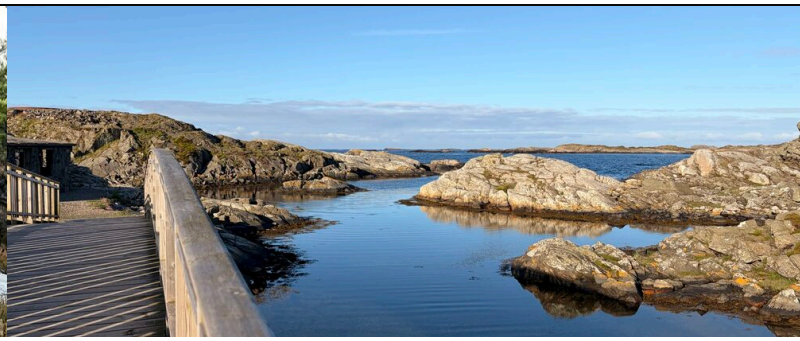
KRISTIANSAND · GUIDED HIKES

FOREST, LAKES AND THE ISLAND WHERE THE CITY BEGAN

SEASON 2027
HIKE PROGRAMME



Walk out of the city on foot, or start on the island at the mouth of the fjord. No bus, no transfer, one local guide throughout.

The Lochner Hike

4 hours · 12 km · easy · 2 to 25 guests · Town Hall

Bymarka, the city's own forest. Out of town through a green park, past the small lake Bånetjønn and up the hand-built stone stairs, over open rock and pine to Bergvannet for a break and a swim, then the cliff-top views over Ravndalen and the sea.

- Town Hall → Bånetjønn and the stone stairs · about 1 h 15
- Bergvannet: break, optional swim · about 45 min
- Ravndalen viewpoints → back to the Town Hall · about 1 h 30

The Park of King Christian IV

2.5 hours · 4 km · easy · 2 to 25 guests · Town Hall

The forest park the king gave Kristiansand in 1641. Up to the Drageknatten viewpoint over the city, then forest paths, small lakes and stone stairs back down to the centre.

- Town Hall → Drageknatten viewpoint
- Forest paths and lakes, a short break
- Down the stone stairs → back to the Town Hall

The Flekkerøy Hike · private

2 hours, a third on request · easy to moderate · 4 to 7 guests · on the island or by boat

Flekkerøy guarded the fjord long before Kristiansand existed. Boardwalks between smooth rocks, the bunkers of a Second World War coastal fort, shaded forest paths, and out to the point facing the Skagerrak.

- Boardwalks and granite
- The coastal fort
- Forest and coastal paths → the outer point, a break and a swim in summer
